Dr. Marcia Don Harpaz is an adjunct lecturer in the International Relations Department and the Faculty of Law at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, where she received her PhD (International Relations) on China's compliance with WTO law. She previously served as Director of the International Agreements Division in Israel's Ministry of Economy (formerly the Ministry of Industry and Trade) where she was responsible for leading trade negotiations and coordinating preparations for WTO and bilateral free trade agreements on behalf of Israel, as well as for the Ministry's activities vis-à-vis the OECD. In addition, she was responsible for the assessment and ongoing preparation of position papers necessary for determining Israel's foreign trade policy. Earlier she served as Senior Economist-Investigator in the Ministry's Trade Levies Unit where her responsibilities included analysis of injury, dumping margins, and determination of dumping/countervailing levies in accordance with domestic law and international rules as well as preparation of responses to the US on behalf of the Israeli government in subsidy complaints against Israeli companies. She was also a member of the Ministry of Industry and Trade group that led the Inter-Ministerial Committee responsible for the implementation of the WTO Agreements in Israel.

She is currently a member of Israel's Roster of Panelists for Dispute Settlement under the Free Trade Agreement between Israel and Mexico, and under the Free Trade Agreement between Israel and Mercosur. She is also a member of the Advisory Committee to the Minister of Economy under Israel's Trade Levies Act.
